Evaluation 2014-2019

AMN-P&A tlantic

entorship etwork

Pain & Addiction

AMN-P&A Influence on Knowledge, Clinical Skills, and Confidence

Knowledge of how to manage patients'/clients' pain has...
Clinical skill when managing patients'/clients' pain has...
Confidence when managing patients'/clients' pain has...

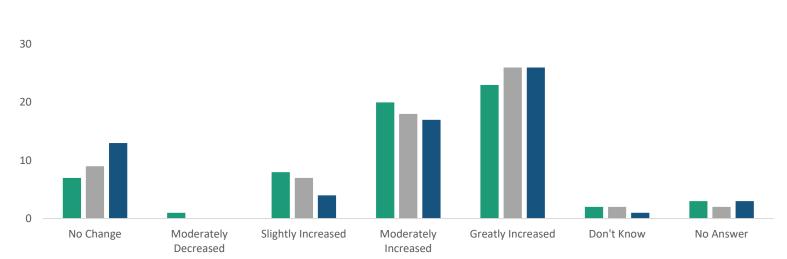

Knowledge of how to manage patients'/clients' addictions has...
 Clinical skills when managing patients'/clients' addictions has...
 Confidence when managing patients'/clients' addictions has...

Atlanticmentorship.com

2

Key Findings

AMN-P&A Influence - Bias, Compassion and Empathy

Awareness of biases that interfere with patient/client care has...

Compassion and empathy toward patients/clients experiencing pain has...

Compassion and empathy toward patients/clients experiencing addictions has...

% of participants who reported a Moderate/Great Increase:

67% in awareness of biases69% in compassion & empathy thoseexperiencing chronic pain67% in compassion & empathy thoseexperiencing addiction

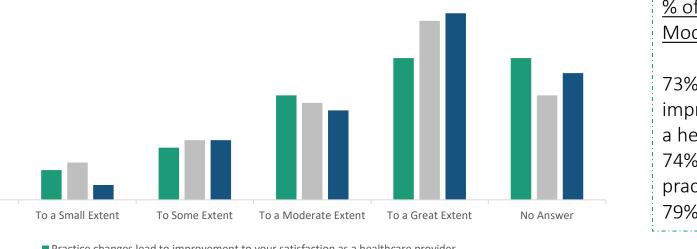

40

■ Has been a benefit to you and your practice

Has been a benefit to your patients

30

20

10

0

Not at All of Survey Participants

% of participants who reported a Moderate/Great Influence:

73% practice changes lead to improved satisfaction of themselves as a healthcare provider 74% benefit to themselves & their practice 79% benefit to their patients

Key Findings

% of participants who reported a Moderate/Great Increase:

53% in confidence to manage more complex clinical cases50% in ability to manage more complex clinical cases

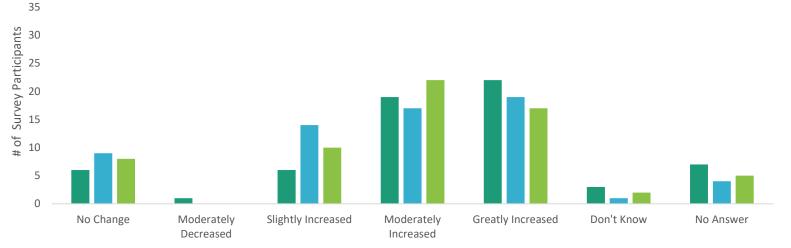

5

Confidence to manage more complex clinical cases has... Ability to manage more complex clinical cases has...

Key Findings

40

Peer Support and Collaboration Change

Quality of peer support from other AMN-P&A members has...

Amount of your interprofessional collaborations has...

Ability to support your colleagues in managing patients with pain and addiction issues has...

% of participants who reported a Moderate/Great Increase:

64% in quality of peer support57% in interprofessional collaboration61% in ability to support colleagues inpain &/or addiction management

AMN-P&A

